Physician Training and Education
Career Broadening Opportunities

Advanced training in aerospace medicine (AMP course)

Medical research

Additional graduate medical education (GME)
Residency/fellowship
International health-focused MPH

Certification as an American College of Physician Executives

Certified Physician Executive (CPE)

Developmental positions within a major command, forward-operating agency or headquarters, air staff

Leadership roles in professional societies
Example: Governor, AF Chapter, American College of Physicians

Education with industry (EWI)

Clinical duties within the White House medical unit